Sayyid Abu’l A‘la Mawdūdī

ISLAM’S POLITICAL ORDER
THE MODEL, DEVIATIONS AND MUSLIM RESPONSE

al- Khilāfah wa al-Mulūkīyah

Translated by Tarik Jan
Edited by Anis Ahmad
Contents

Acknowledgment IX
Editor’s Note X
Preface XII
Introduction: The Islamic Political Order and Monarchy by Anis Ahmad XIII

Chapter – 1: The Political Teachings of the Qur’ān
1. The worldview 02
2. The divine governance 11
3. Allah’s legal governance 18
4. The Messenger’s position 22
5. Supreme law 24
6. Al-Khilāfah 25
7. The nature of the caliphate 26
8. The collective Khilāfah 29
9. The limits of obeying the state 29
10. Shūrā 30
11. The characteristics of its decision-makers 30
12. The foundational principles of the constitution 34
13. The purpose of state 37
14. Fundamental rights 38
15. The government right as against the citizens 44
16. The principles of external politics 46
17. The characteristics of an Islamic state 51

Chapter – 2: Principles of Islamic Governance
1. Supremacy of the divine law 56
CONTENTS

2. Justice among the people 61
3. Equality among the Muslims 62
4. The government’s responsibility and accountability 64
5. Shūrā 67
6. Obedience in goodness (ma‘rūf) 68
7. Forbiddance of power aspirations 71
8. The purpose of the state 72
9. The right and obligation of “amr bi al-ma‘rūf wa nahī ‘an al-munkar” 75

Chapter – 3: Al-Khilāfah al-Rāshidah and its Characteristics
1. Electoral Khilāfah 81
2. Shūrāwi governance 83
3. Bayt al-Māl a matter of trust 84
4. Responsible governance 86
5. Supremacy of the Sharī‘ah 90
6. A government free from ethnicities and prejudices 91
7. Nourishing freedom as value 94

Chapter – 4: From the Rightly Guided Caliphate to Monarchial Absolutism
1. The beginning of change 96
2. The second phase 99
3. The issue of helping relatives from bayt al-māl 100
4. The third phase 103
5. The fourth phase 108
6. The fifth phase 112
7. The sixth phase 116
8. The last phase 122

Chapter – 5: The Difference between the Caliphate and Monarchial Absolutism
1. The procedural change in the caliph’s induction 126
2. The change in the rulers’ lifestyle 128
3. Change in Bayt al-Māl 129
4. The end of freedom 130
   4.1. The end of the judicial freedom 133
5. The end of the shūrā-based government 133
6. The rise of racial and nationalistic biases 134
7. Marginalization of law 136
8. Yazīd’s reign 137
9. The Banī Marwān era 141
10. The blessed reign of ‘Umar ibn ‘Abdul-‘Azīz 142
11. The ‘Abbasids and their promise 146
   11.1. Their deeds 147
   11.2. The Shu‘ūbiyah movement and the Zandaqah 149
   11.3. The Ummah’s reaction 153
12. Split in leadership 154
   12.1. The political leadership 154
   12.2. Religious leadership 155
   12.3. The linkage between the two leaderships 155

Chapter – 6: The Rise of Religious Differences and their Causes
1. The Shi‘ah 159
2. Khawārij 161
3. Murjiah 163
4. Mu‘tazilah 165
5. The mainstream Muslims 167

Chapter – 7: Abu Ḥanīfah’s Accomplishment
1. Brief life event 168
2. Abu Ḥanīfah’s views 173
   2.1. The exposition of the mainstream creed 174
   2.2. The rightly guided caliphate 175
   2.3. The Ṣaḥābah 176
   2.4. Belief defined 176
   2.5. The difference between sin and a nonbeliever 177
   2.6. The end of the sinful believer 178
CONTENTS

2.7. The consequences of the ‘aqīdah (belief) 179
3. The codification of the Islamic laws 180

Chapter – 8: The Caliphate and its Related Issues: Abū Ḥanīfah’s Approach
1. Sovereignty 186
2. The right way to instituting caliphate 188
3. The conditionality for the caliphate 189
   3.1. The leadership of the oppressor and moral violator 190
   3.2. The conditionality of the caliph being the Qurayshite 193
4. Bayt al-Māl 194
5. Separation of judiciary from the administration 195
6. The right to free expression 198
7. Revolt against a tyrant government 201
   7.1. Imām’s conduct in the matter of uprising 202
   7.2. Zayd ibn ‘Ali’s uprising 202
   7.3. Nafs Zakiyyah’s uprising 204
8. Abū Ḥanīfah is not unique in his view 208

Chapter – 9: Imām Abū Yūsuf and his Work
1. Life history 212
2. Academic excellence 213
3. The compilation of the Ḥanafī fiqh 214
4. Justice department 214
5. His lofty character 215
6. Kitāb al-Kharāj 217
   6.1. Reversion to the pious caliphate 218
   6.2. The governance concept 218
   6.3. The democratic spirit 219
   6.4. The obligations of the caliph 220
   6.5. Obligations of the Muslim citizen 221
   6.6. Bayt al-Māl 221
   6.7. Principles of collecting revenues 222
   6.8. The rights of the non-Muslims 223
   6.9. The land laws 223
6.10. End to tyranny 224
6.11. Judiciary 225
6.12. Safeguarding personal freedom 225
6.13. Reforming the prisons 225
7. The real value of Abū Yūsuf’s work 226

Bibliography 228
Index 234