Scope: The Policy Perspectives is a biannual, peer reviewed Journal with occasional special issues for disseminating the research carried out by the Institute of Policy Studies (IPS) and its associates based in Pakistan and other parts of the world. The Journal also welcomes original, unpublished scholarly articles from research scholars, experts and policy practitioners.

The Journal is distinctive in combining original research papers with reflective studies and analysis on varied themes and issues, namely International Relations, Pakistan Affairs, and Faith & Society. It is a unique journal as it brings forth Pakistani and the Muslim World's perspectives on issues of national and global significance. Contents of the Journal therefore appeal to a wide academic and professional readership, and reach an interdisciplinary and international audience. The Policy Perspectives is recognized in "Y" category by the Higher Education Commission, Pakistan.

Indexing & Abstracting: The digital edition of the Policy Perspectives is co-published by Pluto Journals, UK, and made available on JSTOR (www.jstor.org/journal/polipers). It is indexed in International Political Science Abstracts (IPSA) database through both the print edition (published by Sage) and on the Ebsco and Ovid websites. The Journal is also available on Factiva and affiliated international databases through Asianet-Pakistan. It is indexed in Google Scholar as well.

Feedback: Please direct your feedback to the Editor, Policy Perspectives, Institute of Policy Studies, Nasr Chambers, Plot 1, Commercial Centre, MPCHS, E-11/3, Islamabad, Pakistan or email at: editor\_pp@ips.net.pk.
